It is a 3D First Person Shooter (FPS) video game that was released in 2017 by the indie game studio Quantum Conundrum. The game is inspired by a scene of the 1973 film, "Jobs" by Stanley Kubrick, where Steve Jobs and Steve Wozniak discuss the "future of computing". Inspired by the above anecdote, in which Jobs manages to avoid the "sales" atmosphere that is present in the wholesaler who he was trying to sell Apple's products, and in which Wozniak is ultimately disappointed with the sense of alienation that he found in the technology
